

MTIBRS
“Tip” of the Month

If my county attorney’s office mails a Citation to someone for an incident I entered into my RMS, should I report it?

Law enforcement officers only report Citations that they know has been physically received by an individual. Certified or registered mail is not considered a physical receipt; there would not be proof that the specific individual had physically received the Citation.