MONTANA MONITORING STANDARDS FOR JUVENILES IN CUSTODY OF LICENSED JUVENILE AND COLLOCATED DETENTION FACILITIES

A GUIDE TO COMPLIANCE WITH:
THE JUVENILE JUSTICE AND DELINQUENCY PREVENTION ACT OF 2002
AND THE MONTANA YOUTH COURT ACT

Updated December 2005
INTRODUCTION

This handbook has been developed to acquaint juvenile justice professionals with both the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 2002 as Amended (JJDP Act) and the corresponding Youth Court Act, Montana Code Annotated (MCA) Title 41, Chapter 5. This information will enable those involved in the juvenile detention arena with maintaining compliance with both the state’s Youth Court Act and the federal JJDP Act regarding the processing and holding of juveniles.

As a participant in the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act, Montana must maintain and monitor compliance with the core requirements of the JJDP Act. The Montana Board of Crime Control Juvenile Justice Program is the state agency designated to administer federal JJDP ACT funds and provide staff support to the Youth Justice Council (YJC). Working in conjunction with the YJC and other juvenile justice system members, the state Juvenile Justice Specialist provides the leadership necessary to coordinate the JJDP ACT and juvenile justice efforts. The Juvenile Justice Planner coordinates the compliance efforts. The Data Technician collects the data.

Montana receives JJDP ACT funds annually, dependent upon compliance with the core requirements of the JJDP ACT. The core requirements, explained further in this manual, have become tenants for basic professional practice throughout the country. These funds and additional grants from the State General Fund as described in Part 19 of the Youth Court Act are available to every community in Montana that reports crime data to the Board of Crime Control and maintain compliance with both the JJDP Act and the Youth Court Act. It is incumbent upon all communities to assist the state in maintaining compliance to retain these funds for juvenile justice programming.

DEFINITIONS

The definitions from the Federal Formula Grant Regulations, the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act, and the OJJDP Guidance Manual will take precedence over state definitions and will be used for monitoring purposes. Citations follow with corresponding definitions in the Montana Code Annotated (MCA) if any, referenced in blue.

Adjudicated youth. A youth that has been found, under formal proceedings by a judge, to have committed an offense. (MCA 41-5-103(11) Delinquent youth)

Adult inmate. *(42 U. S. C. 5603 Sec 103(26)) An individual who has reached the age of full criminal responsibility under applicable state law and has been arrested and is in custody for or awaiting trial on a criminal charge, or is convicted of a criminal offense. (MCA 41-5-103(1) Adult)

Adult jail *(28 CFR 31.304(m)). A locked facility, administered by State, county, or local law enforcement and correctional agencies, the purpose of which is to detain adults charged with violating criminal law, pending trial. Also considered as adult jails are those facilities used to hold convicted adult criminal offenders sentenced for less than 1 year. (MCA 41-5-103(23) Jail)

Adult lockup *(28CFR 31.304(n)). Similar to an adult jail except that an adult lockup is generally a municipal or police facility of a temporary nature that does not hold person after they have been formally charged. (MCA 41-5-103(23) Jail)

Civil-type juvenile offender. A juvenile offender who has been charged with or adjudicated for an offense that is civil in nature. Examples include non-criminal traffic violations and noncriminal fish and game violations. (MCA 41-5-103(50) Youth in need of intervention)

Collocated facility. A collocated facility is a juvenile facility that is located in the same building as an adult jail or lockup or is part of a related complex of buildings located on the same grounds as an adult jail or lockup. A complex of buildings is considered “related” when it shares physical features such as walls and fences or services beyond mechanical services (heating, air conditioning, water and sewer). Each of the following four criteria must be met in order to ensure the requisite separateness of a juvenile detention facility that is collocated with an adult jail or lockup:

1. The facility must ensure separation between juveniles and adults such that there could be no sustained sight or sound contact between juveniles and adults committed to the Department of Corrections, released on parole and subsequently picked up and held for violation of a parole (aftercare) agreement or escape under MCA 52-5-128 is considered an adjudicated youth and may not be securely held in an adult jail, lockup, or unapproved collocated facility for any length of time.

2. In Montana, all youth taken into custody are under the jurisdiction of the Youth District Court, however, District Court does not have concurrent jurisdiction for traffic offenses, even if they are criminal. Therefore, secure detention of youth for a traffic offense of any kind is a violation of the Youth Court Act.
incarcerated adults in the facility. Separation can be achieved architecturally or through time phasing of common use nonresidential areas; and

2. The facility must have separate juvenile and adult program areas, including recreation, education, vocation, counseling, dining, sleeping, and general living activities. There must be an independent and comprehensive operational plan for the juvenile detention facility that provides for a full range of separate program services. No program activities may be shared by juveniles and incarcerated adults. Time phasing of common use nonresidential areas is permissible to conduct program activities. Equipment and other resources may be used by both populations subject to security concerns; and

3. The facility must have separate staff for the juvenile and adult populations, including management, security, and direct care staff. Staff providing specialized services (e.g., medical care, food service, laundry, maintenance, and engineering) who are not normally in contact with detainees or whose infrequent contacts occur under conditions of separation of juveniles and adults can serve both populations (subject to State standards or licensing requirements). The day-to-day management, security, and direct care functions of the juvenile detention center must be vested in a totally separate staff, dedicated solely to the juvenile population within the collocated facilities; and

4. In States that have established standards or licensing requirements for juvenile detention facilities, the juvenile facility must meet the standards on the same basis as a freestanding juvenile detention center, and be licensed as appropriate. If there are no State standards or licensing requirements, OJJDP encourages States to establish administrative requirements that authorize the State to review the facility’s physical plant, staffing patterns, and programs in order to approve the collocated facility based on prevailing national juvenile detention standards.

The State must determine that the four criteria are fully met. It is incumbent upon the State to make the determination through an onsite facility (or full construction and operations plan) review and, through the exercise of its oversight responsibility, to ensure that the separate character of the juvenile detention facility is maintained by continuing to fully meet the four criteria set forth above. (28 CFR 31.303(e)(3)(i)(A)) MCA 41-5-103(49)(a)(ii) Collocated facility

Contact (DMC). See Disproportionate Minority Contact below.

Contact (sight and sound) (28 CFR 31.303(d)). Any physical or sustained sight and sound contact between juvenile offenders in a secure custody status and incarcerated adults, including inmate trustees. Sight contact is defined as clear visual contact between incarcerated adults, including inmate trustees. Sight contact is defined as clear visual contact between incarcerated adults and juveniles within close proximity to each other. Sound contact is defined as direct oral communication between incarcerated adults and juvenile offenders. (MCA 41-5-349(3)(c) Youth not to be detained in jail – exceptions – time limitations)

Court holding facility (Page 53, Guidance Manual for Monitoring Facilities Under the JJDP Act). A court holding facility is a secure, non-residential facility, that is not an adult jail or lockup, that is used to temporarily detain persons immediately before or after court proceedings. (CAUTION: Do not confuse this with the non-secure holdover described in MCA 41-5-103(23))

Criminal type juvenile offender (28 CFR 31-304(g)). A juvenile offender who has been charged with or adjudicated for conduct that would, under the law of the jurisdiction in which the offense was committed, be a crime if committed by an adult. Caution: The JJDP Act does not allow a status offender to be upgraded to a delinquent offender on the basis of criminal contempt. (Reference page 20 of OJJDP’s Guidance Manual “Monitoring Facilities Under the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974, as Amended”). (MCA 41-5-103 (11) Delinquent youth)

Delayed egress device. A device that precludes the use of exits for a predetermined period of time.

Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC). (42 U. S. C. 5633 Sec. 223(a)(22)). As amended by the JJDP Act of 2002, the concept of disproportionate minority confinement has been broadened to address the disproportionate numbers of minority youth who come into contact with the juvenile justice system at any point. The 2002 Act requires states to “address juvenile delinquency prevention efforts and system improvement efforts designed to reduce, without establishing or requiring numerical standards or quotas, the disproportionate number of juvenile members of the minority groups, who come into contact with the juvenile justice system.”

Facility (28 CFR 31.304.(c)). A place, an institution, a building or part thereof, set of buildings, or an area whether or not enclosing a building or set of buildings which is used for the lawful custody and treatment of juveniles and may be owned and/or operated by public and private agencies.

Juvenile offender (28 CFR 31.304(f)). An individual subject to the exercise of juvenile court jurisdiction for purposes of adjudication and treatment based on age and offense limitations as defined by State law, i.e., a criminal-type offender or a status offender. (MCA 41-5-103 (11) Delinquent youth or MCA 41-5-103 (50) Youth in need of intervention)

Juvenile who is accused of having committed an offense (28 CFR 31.304(d)). A juvenile with respect to whom a petition has been filed in the juvenile court or other action has occurred alleging that such juvenile is a juvenile offender, i.e., a criminal-type offender or a status offender, and no final adjudication has been made by the juvenile court.
Juvenile who has been adjudicated as having committed an offense (28 CFR 31.304(e)). A juvenile with respect to whom the juvenile court has determined that such juvenile is a juvenile offender, i.e., a criminal-type offender or a status offender. (MCA 41-5-103 (11) Delinquent youth or MCA 41-5-103 (50) Youth in need of intervention)

Lawful custody (28 CFR 31.304(j)). The exercise of care, supervision, and control over a juvenile offender or non-offender pursuant to the provisions of the law or of a judicial order or decree. (MCA 41-5-321 Taking into custody)

Non-offender (28 CFR 31.304(i)). A juvenile who is subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, usually under abuse, dependency, or neglect statutes, for reasons other than legally prohibited conduct of the juvenile. (MCA 41-3-102 (29) Youth in need of care)

Non-secure custody. A juvenile may be in law enforcement custody and, therefore, not free to leave or depart from the presence of a law enforcement officer or at liberty to leave the premises of a law enforcement facility, but not be in a secure detention or confinement status. The November 2, 1988, Federal Register announcement, Policy Guidance for Nonsecure Custody of Juveniles in Adult Jails and Lockups; Notice of Final Policy, states that the following policy criteria, if satisfied, will constitute non-secure custody of a juvenile in an adult jail or lockup facility:

- The area(s) where the juvenile is held is an unlocked multipurpose area, such as a lobby, office, or interrogation room which is not designated, set aside, or used as a secure detention area or is not part of such an area, or if a secure area, is used only for processing purposes;
- The juvenile is not physically secured to a cuffing rail or other stationary object during the period of custody in the facility;
- The use of the area(s) is limited to providing non-secure custody only long enough for and for the purposes of identification, investigation, processing, release to parents, or arranging transfer to an appropriate juvenile facility or to court;
- In no event can the area be designed or intended to be used for residential purposes; and
- The juvenile must be under continuous visual supervision by a law enforcement officer or facility staff during the period of time that he or she is in non-secure custody.

In addition, a juvenile placed in the following situations would be considered in a non-secure status:

- If certain criteria are met, a juvenile handcuffed to a non-stationary object: Handcuffing techniques that do not involve cuffing rails or other stationary objects area considered non-secure if the five criteria listed above are adhered to.
If certain criteria are met, a juvenile being processed through a secure booking area: Where a secure booking area is all that is available, and continuous visual supervision is provided throughout the booking process, and the juvenile remains in the booking area only long enough to be photographed and fingerprinted (consistent with State law and/or judicial rules), the juvenile is not considered to be in a secure detention status. Continued non-secure custody for the purposes of interrogation, contacting parents, or arranging an alternative placement must occur outside the booking area.

A juvenile placed in a secure police car for transportation: The JJDP Act applies to secure detention facilities and secure correctional facilities, so a juvenile placed in a secure police car for transportation would be in a non-secure status.

A juvenile placed in a non-secure runaway shelter, but prevented from leaving due to staff restricting access to exits: A facility may be non-secure if physical restriction of movement or activity is provided solely through facility staff.

Other individual accused of having committed a criminal offense (28 U. S. C. 31.304(k)). An individual, adult or juvenile, who has been charged with committing a criminal offense in a court exercising criminal jurisdiction. (MCA 41-5-206(7) Filing in district court prior to formal proceedings in youth court)

Other individual convicted of a criminal offense (28 CFR 31.304(l)). An individual, adult or juvenile, who has been convicted of a criminal offense by a court exercising criminal jurisdiction. (MCA 41-5-103 (9) criminally convicted youth)

Private agency. A private non-profit agency, organization or institution is:

(A) Any corporation, foundation, trust, association, cooperative, or accredited institution of higher education not under public supervision or control; or

(B) Any other agency, organization or institution which operates primarily for scientific, education, charitable service or similar public purposes, but which is not under public supervision or control, and no part of the net earnings of which inures or may lawfully inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and which has been held by IRS to be tax exempt under the provisions of section 501 (c) (3) of the 1954 Internal Revenue Code (28 CFR 31.304(a)).

Public agency. Any State, unit of local government, combination of such States or units, or any department, agency or instrumentality of any of the foregoing (42 USC 5603 Sec. 103(11)).

Reasonable cause hearing (42 U. S. C. 5633 Sec. 223(a)(23)(C)(ii)). In the context of the VCO Exception, the reasonable cause hearing (also referred to as a “probable cause hearing” or “preliminary hearing”) is a court proceeding held by a judge to determine whether there is sufficient cause to believe that a juvenile status offender accused of violating a valid court order has violated such an order and to determine the appropriate placement of such juvenile pending disposition of the violation alleged. (MCA 41-4-332 Custody—hearing for probable cause.)

Related complex of buildings (42 U. S. C. 5603 Sec. 103(28)) 2 or more buildings that share physical features such as walls and fences, or services beyond mechanical services (heating, air conditioning, water and sewer); or the specialized services such as medical care, food service, laundry, maintenance, engineering services, etc.

Secure Custody (28 CFR 31.304(b)). As used to define a detention or correctional facility, this term includes residential features designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of persons in custody such as locked rooms and buildings, fences, or other physical structures. It does not include facilities where physical restriction of movement or activity is provided solely through facility staff.

Secure juvenile detention center or correctional facility (28 CFR 31.303(n)(f)(2)). A secure juvenile detention or correctional facility is any secure public or private facility used for the lawful custody of accused or adjudicated juvenile offenders or nonoffenders. (MCA 41-5-103 (15) Detention facility, 41-5-103(32) Regional detention facility, 41-5-103(35) Secure detention facility, 41-5-103(39) Short term detention center, 41-5-103(40) State youth correctional facility, and 41-5-103(49) Youth detention facility).

Staff secure facility. A staff secure facility may be defined as a residential facility (1) which does not include construction features designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of juveniles who are in custody therein; (2) which may establish reasonable rules restricting entrance to and egress from the facility; and (3) in which the movements and activities of individual juvenile residents may, for treatment purposes, be restricted or subject to control through the use of intensive staff supervision. (MCA 41-5-103 (22) Holdover, and 41-5-103 (38) Shelter care facility)

Stationary. Not capable of being moved by a juvenile.

Status offender (28 CFR 31.304(h)). A juvenile offender who has been charged with or adjudicated for conduct which would not, under the law of the jurisdiction in which the offense was committed, be a crime if committed by an adult. The following are examples of status offenses:

- Truancy
- Violations of Curfew
- Unruly
- Runaway
- Underage possession and/or consumption of tobacco products
- Underage possession and/or consumption of alcohol. This offense is always considered a status offense, even though State or local law may consider it a criminal-type offense for a small portion of the adult population. Where it is a criminal-type offense for all adults as on some reservations, then it is a delinquent offense. (MCA 41-5-103 (50) Youth in need of intervention)
Valid Court Order (VCO). The term means a court order given by a juvenile court judge to a juvenile who has been brought before the court and made subject to a court order. The use of the word “valid” permits the incarceration of juveniles for violation of a valid court order only if they received their full due process rights as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States (28 CFR 31.304(o)). (Reference “Summary of the Valid Court Order (VCO) Process” attached and second paragraph page 23 federal guidelines manual re: state common laws and use of traditional contempt). (Note: Montana’s court order process does not meet the federal standard for a valid court order process. Since 2003, Montana law does not allow for incarceration of youth in need of intervention who violate a court order.)

MCA 41-5-103(11) Delinquent youth; 41-5-341(2) Criteria for placement of youth in secure detention facilities; 41-5-345 Limitation on placement of youth in need of intervention; 41-5-349(2) Exceptions of youth not to be detained in jail, 41-5-1431(3)) Probation revocation disposition; and 41-5-1512(o)(i) Disposition of youth in need of intervention or youth who violate consent adjustments.
Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention Act

In 1974, Congress enacted the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act (JJDP ACT) in order to reform the juvenile justice system. This legislation was designed to provide federal direction, coordination, and resources to increase the effectiveness of state juvenile justice systems. In keeping with changes in the juvenile justice environment, the JJDP ACT has been amended every four years since its inception through 1992. Reauthorization was postponed in 1994 and the entire act was revised in November 2002.

Consistent with its comprehensive focus, other objectives of the JJDP ACT include:
- the enhancement of state and local juvenile justice planning,
- the strengthening and maintenance of the family unit,
- the provision of assistance and pass through funds for Native American Tribes,
- the development of programs for disadvantaged youth,
- the development of educational advocacy, and community based programs, and
- the prevention of alcohol and drug use and domestic violence.

The Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act, evolving from decades of debate concerning juvenile justice, represents widespread consensus on what constitutes "best practices" with juveniles. The requirements of the JJDP ACT provide a standard against which states, tribes and communities can assess the comprehensiveness and effectiveness of their own policies and procedures regarding juveniles. The JJDP ACT allows states and tribes to enter into a voluntary partnership with the federal government in the effort to create innovative, responsive strategies to address juvenile justice issues. The JJDP ACT funds often provide the initial revenue for both the development and implementation of pilot programs for juveniles, consequently, the effectiveness of the programs can be assessed before instituting them on a statewide level.

The JJDP ACT contains the following core requirements, the first four are tied to funding:

1. Deinstitutionalization of Status Offenders and Non-offenders (DSO):

   "Provide that juveniles who are charged with or who have committed an offense that would not be criminal if committed by an adult, excluding juveniles who are charged with or who have committed a violation of section 922(x)(2) of title 18, United States Code, or of a similar State law; juveniles who are charged with or

2. No Youth Contact with Incarcerated Adults

"Provide that juveniles alleged to be or found to be delinquent or juveniles\(^10\) within the purview of paragraph (11)\(^11\) will not be detained or confined in any institution in which they have contact with adult inmates; and there is in effect in the State a policy that requires individuals who work with both such juveniles and such adult inmates, including\(^12\) in collocated facilities, have been trained and certified to work with juveniles;" [Section 223(a)12]

3. Jail Removal

"Provide that no juvenile shall be detained or confined in any jail or lockup for adults except (A) juveniles who are accused of nonstatus\(^13\) offenses who are detained in such jail or lock-up for a period not to exceed 6 hours (i) for processing or release; (ii) while awaiting transfer to a juvenile facility; or (iii) in which period such juveniles make a court appearance; and only if such juveniles do not have contact with adult inmates and only if there is in effect in the State a policy that requires individuals who work with both such juveniles and such adult inmates in collocated facilities have been trained and certified to work with juveniles; (B) juveniles who are accused of nonstatus offenses, who are awaiting an initial court appearance that will occur within 48\(^14\) hours after being taken into custody (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays\(^15\)), and who are detained in a jail or lockup (I) in which (i) such juveniles do not have contact with adult inmates; and (ii) there is in effect in the State a policy that requires individuals who work with both such juveniles and such adult inmates in \(^12\) Guidance from OJJDP based on Congressional Committee notes indicates that the word “including” was an error and that this requirement only applies to staff working with both juveniles and adults in a licensed collocated facility.

\(^14\) This represents an increase over the previous version of the Act that provided for a probable cause hearing within 24 hours. Montana laws MCA 41-5-349(2)(b) and 41-5-332 are more restrictive. They still provide for a probable cause hearing within 24 hours exclusive of weekends and holidays.

\(^15\) Prior language was “exclusive of weekends and holidays”. Some jurisdictions considered after 5 on Friday and before 8 AM on Mondays to be the weekend. The new language prevents that interpretation.
collocated facilities have been trained and certified to work with juveniles; and (II) that (i) is located outside a metropolitan statistical area (as defined by the Office of Management and Budget) and has no existing acceptable alternative placement available; (ii) is located where conditions of distance to be traveled or the lack of highway, road, or transportation do not allow for court appearances within 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) so that a brief (not to exceed 48 hours) delay is excusable; or (iii) is located where conditions of safety exist (such as severely adverse, life-threatening weather conditions that do not allow for reasonably safe travel), in which case the time for an appearance may be delayed until 24 hours after the time that such conditions allow for reasonably safe travel." [Section 223(a)13]

4. Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC)

From 1992 until 2002, States were to determine if minority juveniles were disproportionately confined in secure detention and correctional facilities and if so address "any features of its system that may account for the disproportionate confinement of minority juveniles." In 2002 it was amended to read "address juvenile delinquency prevention efforts and system improvement efforts designed to reduce, without establishing or requiring numerical standards or quotas, the disproportionate number of juvenile members of minority groups, who come into contact with the juvenile justice system;." [Section 223 (a) 22]

5. Compliance Monitoring

"Provide for an adequate system of monitoring jails, detention facilities, correctional facilities, and non-secure facilities to insure that the requirements of paragraph (11), paragraph (12), and paragraph (13) are met, and for annual reporting of the results of such monitoring to the Administrator, except that such reporting requirements shall not apply in the case of a State which is in compliance with the other requirements of this paragraph, which is in compliance with the requirements in paragraph (11) and paragraph (13), and which has enacted legislation which conforms to such requirements and which contains, in the opinion of the Administrator, sufficient enforcement mechanisms to ensure that such legislation will be administered effectively;." [Section 223(a)14]

16 In Montana, only 3 cities have been designated as Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSA’s). They are Billings, Missoula, and Great Falls.
17 Youth Court Act 41-5-133 is more restrictive, providing for initial court appearances within 24 hours.
INTENT OF THE JJDP ACT

DEINSTITUTIONALIZATION OF STATUS OFFENDERS (DSO)

The DSO requirement has been a part of the JJDP ACT since its inception in 1974. The DSO reflects the following principles:

♦ Holding status and non-offenders in secure confinement, although expedient, is an inappropriate strategy for handling juveniles who have not engaged in any criminal behavior.
♦ Historically, status offenders, when handled as delinquents, have been placed in environments that lead to physical and emotional harm.
♦ The punishment of status offenders, often abused and neglected children, simply represents a continuation of the cycle of mistreatment.

The JJDP ACT does not ignore the problems of status and non-offenders. Instead, the JJDP ACT has supplied federal funds to the states, who meet the core requirements, to develop a comprehensive continuum of care. The JJDP ACT encourages the creation and implementation of community-based treatment, diversion and delinquency prevention programs. The JJDP ACT emphasizes the importance of these programs as appropriate, and cost effective, alternatives to secure confinement. The maintenance of this requirement promotes just policies concerning status and non-offenders, and it upholds the necessary distinction in treatment strategies for the status and non-offenders versus the more serious juvenile offender.

STATUTORY EXCEPTIONS TO THE DSO REQUIREMENT

In the 1980 amendments to the JJDP Act, Congress enacted a provision intended to address concerns that the DSO mandate deprived juvenile court judges of a significant option in handling certain chronic status offenders. This modification of the JJDP Act was meant to be applied sparingly to the small number of status offenders that “continually flout the will of the court.”

Statutory exceptions are defined in the JJDP ACT and established by Congress. Their interpretation is strictly defined by the statute. These exceptions allow states to remove from consideration, for compliance purposes, offenses that constitute:

➢ violation of a valid court order;

violation of Section 922(X) of the Title 18 (handgun possession on school grounds) or similar state law;

or handling of youth in accordance with the Interstate Compact as implemented by the State (reference Appendix A).

Exception for Violation of a Valid Court Order (VCO)

The exception provides that status offenders found to have violated a Valid Court Order (VCO) may be securely detained in a juvenile detention or correctional facility.

A non-offenders, such as an alien, alleged dependent, abused or neglected child, and civil offenders, cannot be placed in a secure juvenile detention facility for violating a valid court order.

Prior to 2003, Montana’s definition of a delinquent youth meant, “a youth who is adjudicated under formal proceedings under the Montana Youth Court Act as a youth: (a) who has committed an offense that, if committed by an adult, would constitute a criminal offense; or (b) who has been placed on probation as a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention and who has violated any condition of probation. Because Montana's formal court proceedings did not provide for all of the new conditions placed in the 2002 amendment to the JJDP Act for determining if a valid court order existed, the MT Legislature amended the definition of delinquent youth by removing the clause “or a youth in need of intervention”. This action made the Youth Court Act more restrictive than the JJDP Act by eliminating the exception for a valid court order.

Exception for Title 18, Handgun Possession on School Grounds

Montana’s law that prohibits weapons on school grounds applies to both adults and juveniles, therefore this offense is a criminal and not a status offense in Montana.

Exception Youth Subject to the Interstate Compact

Montana participates in the Interstate Compact for youth. The State Department of Corrections (DOC) is responsible for the administration of the Interstate Compact in Montana. MBCC and DOC jointly developed the following diagram to help juvenile justice professionals determine how to handle youth subject to the Rules of the Interstate Compact.
Runaway: A youth under age 18 who has left his/her home state without permission of the person or agency of legal custody or supervision.

Document: A signed written document from the home state or a written statement by a peace officer that the youth is endangering self or others.
NO CONTACT WITH INCARCERATED ADULTS

The No Contact requirement, formerly known as the Sight and Sound Separation requirement, has been part of the JJDP ACT since its beginning in 1974. It was passed by Congress in response to the fact, supported by research, that juveniles placed in adult facilities where they had contact with adult inmates and correctional staff were frequently the victims of physical, mental, sexual, and emotional abuse, and the discovery that juveniles in contact with adult prisoners are exposed to the tools and training necessary to engage in criminal behavior.

In addition to protecting juveniles against abuse and corruption, sight and sound separation reinforces acceptable professional guidelines.

The American Correctional Association, the American Bar Association, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs support standards requiring separation, therefore, the sight and sound separation requirement represents the minimum standard for safe jail policy.

The separation of juveniles from adults allows for the immediate mobilization of effective, appropriate services for juveniles. The separation requirement maintains the safety of juveniles while focusing attention on their diversion to the necessary community resources.

JUVENILE JAIL REMOVAL INITIATIVE

The Jail Removal requirement added to the JJDP ACT in 1980, was in part, a method for addressing the unintended consequences of the sight and sound separation requirement.

To meet the separation requirement, juveniles were frequently held in jail environments that resembled solitary confinement. As a result of this isolation, the suicide rate of juveniles was found, according to a 1980s study by Community Research Associates, to be seven to eight times greater than that of juveniles held in juvenile detention centers.

In order to provide consistent protection of juveniles, the sight and sound separation requirement necessitated the addition of Jail Removal. The removal of juveniles from adult jails is supported by a widespread consensus on the appropriate handling of juveniles.

Juveniles held in adult jails and lockups remain at risk for physical, mental, and sexual abuse at the hands of adults. In addition, they are frequently exposed to and educated about how to become better criminals.
The National Council on Crime and Delinquency, the Coalition for Juvenile Justice, the National Sheriff's Associate, the Institute for Judicial Administration, the National Advisory Commission on Law Enforcement, and essentially every national organization representing law enforcement and the judicial system, recommends or mandates standards that forbid the jailing of children. The intent of Jail Removal is not to release juveniles who, because of the offenses and their history, need to be securely detained, but to promote the appropriate secure confinement of these juveniles in juvenile facilities. Juvenile facilities can provide both for the public safety and the specific evaluation and treatment needs of the juvenile.

Rural Exception to the Jail Removal Requirement

This exception was added to the JJDP Act to prevent penalizing those communities with limited access to court personnel for probable cause hearings, and to provide for the safety of juveniles and justice personnel where adverse weather or travel conditions prevented safe transport of youth to juvenile facilities.

The JJDP Act allows for a delay of 48 hours in the probable cause hearing. However MCA 41-5-349 is more restrictive, limiting placement of youth in jails or other adult detention facilities to 24 hours, excluding weekends and legal holidays, awaiting a probable cause hearing pursuant to 41-5-332. Therefore in MT the rural exception applies where:

1. The facility is located outside a metropolitan statistical area, as defined by the federal Office of Management and Budget\(^\text{19}\); and
2. Alternative facilities are not available or do not provide adequate security; and
3. The youth is kept in an area that provides physical as well as sight and sound separation from adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses; and
4. The youth is awaiting a probable cause hearing pursuant to 41-5-332; or
5. is located where conditions of safety exist (such as severely adverse, life-threatening weather conditions that do not allow for reasonably safe travel), in which case the time for an appearance may be delayed until 24 hours after the time that such conditions allow for reasonably safe travel.

Facilities in non-MSA’s will be found in violation if they:

\(^{19}\) As of October 2005, this is everywhere except Billings, Missoula, and Great Falls. Micropolitan areas such as Bozeman and Kalispell need to check often as their growing populations may change their status in the near future.
1. Hold a youth beyond 6 hours and release them without a probable cause hearing; or

2. Hold a youth in excess of 24 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, before a probable cause hearing without also providing independent documentation of the severe adverse weather conditions;

The clock starts the moment a juvenile is placed into a locked setting. This includes any lockable room that cannot be unlocked from the inside, or when a juvenile is cuffed to a stationary object.

Once started, the clock cannot be turned off, even if the juvenile is removed briefly from the locked setting.

The following circumstances do not start the clock:

1) the juvenile is placed into a locked squad car,
2) the juvenile is handcuffed to him or herself,
3) the juvenile is in a secure booking area while being processed (not pending processing nor after processing) and is under continuous "in-person" supervision, or
4) the juvenile is placed into an unlocked room with freedom of movement from the facility.

COMPLIANCE MONITORING

Assessing compliance affects the state's eligibility for formula grant funding and participation in various programs offered through the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP). Non-compliance with any of the four core requirements of the JJDP Act (De-institutionalization of Status and Non-offenders, No Contact with Incarcerated Adults, Jail Removal and DMC) results in a reduction of not less than 20% of the funds awarded to the state for each paragraph violated. In addition, the State shall be ineligible to receive any allocation under the Act unless the State agrees to use 50% of the amount allocated to achieve compliance with the violated requirement(s). An effective compliance monitoring system clarifies gaps in the continuum of care and highlights challenge areas in a state's juvenile justice system. As a result, compliance monitoring can represent a component in the process of state policy and program development.

The Delinquency Prevention Program, under Title V of the JJDP Act, requires localities to provide certification of compliance with the JJDP Act in order to be eligible for these funds.

Compliance monitoring contains four primary components:
1) Identification of the Monitoring Universe. Compiling a comprehensive list of the facilities and programs that could hold juveniles pursuant to public authority.

2) Classification of the Monitoring Universe. Determining which agencies and facilities must be monitored for compliance with the JJDP Act.

3) Facility Inspections. Secure adult jails and lockups are inspected to review the physical structure to ensure sight and sound separation of juveniles from incarcerated adults and to determine that policies and procedures remain consistent with the Youth Court Act and JJDP Act guidelines. All secure juvenile facilities are inspected in order to review record keeping systems and reporting procedures. An additional sampling of non-secure facilities is required to assure consistency in classification.

4) Collection and Verification of Data. Data regarding the secure detention of juveniles shall be collected and verified for accuracy and consistency. The data collection provides the information necessary for assessing violations and determining compliance levels with the JJDP Act.

Montana’s plan for monitoring compliance with the JJDP and Youth Court Acts is available for download from our web site at: http://www.bccdoj.doj.state.mt.us/juvjust/index.shtml

DISPROPORTIONATE MINORITY CONTACT, FORMERLY CONFINEMENT (DMC)

DMC was added during the 1988 reauthorization of the JJDP Act to address Disproportionate Minority Confinement. In 2002 the language was changed to address Disproportionate Minority Contact with the juvenile justice system. The DMC requirement, by examining the entire system, now takes a comprehensive approach to the issue of minority over-representation. The addition of DMC represents a commitment to the equitable treatment of all juveniles, regardless of race, ethnicity, and culture, and it strives to enhance the integrity of the juvenile justice system.

Data collected through the Department of Corrections and the Board of Crime Control consistently showed that Native American youth were confined anywhere from 3 to four times what could be expected given that they only comprised 8% of the general juvenile population of the state. Data analysis indicated that minority youth were over-represented at all decision points of the juvenile justice system, referral through disposition.

In 2002, a position paper developed by Drs. Feyerherm and Butts and paid for by OJJDP determined that the method used by OJJDP to calculate DMC consistently overstated DMC in lightly populated states such as Montana, while understating DMC in heavily populated states. In 2005 Dr. Feyerherm delivered a new tool to MT that will indicate if calculations are statistically valid for MT’s small numbers. MBCC is in the process of developing a webpage dedicated to DMC where the results of DMC analysis and other DMC information will be available: www.mbcc.mt.gov

In other states it is not uncommon to find that a minority youth who commits the same offense as a non-minority youth often receives a harsher disposition. The maintenance of a system that may practice discrimination undermines the integrity of the juvenile justice system and the principle of equal justice under the law.

The contention that minority juveniles commit more offenses and more serious offenses falters with the disparity of treatment existing between minority and non-minority juveniles sharing similar histories and committing similar offenses. The fact that virtually every state, excluding Vermont, has identified the over-representation of minorities in detention and/or correctional facilities supports the need for the maintenance of the DMC requirement. The leadership provided by the JJDP Act has initiated this widespread, essential effort to attain justice for all juveniles.

JUVENILES AND THE ADULT COURT

According to the December 10, 1996 Federal Register, 31.303(e)(2), “juveniles formally waived or transferred to criminal court and against whom a criminal charges have been filed, or juveniles over whom a criminal court has original or concurrent jurisdiction and such court's jurisdiction has been invoked through the filing of criminal felony charges” are considered adults and do not fall under the purview of the JJDP Act.

However MCA 41-5-206(7) is more restrictive than the JJDP Act and requires that the youth be handled as a youth until after the transfer hearing if the District Court retains jurisdiction in the case. It then further requires that they be maintained sight and sound separate from incarcerated adults until adjudicated by the district court. Once adjudicated, the district adult court retains jurisdiction until the youth attains the age of 21.

Transferring juveniles or direct filing to adult court, although initially appearing to be an effective response to juvenile crime, does not necessarily provide the expected outcomes of greater deterrence, harsher sentences, and prevention of recidivism.

♦ In states that possess harsh automatic transfer laws, there has been no evidence that these punitive policies have any deterrent effect.
♦ Transfer to adult court may not result in harsher sentencing. The U. S. Department of Justice noted that in 1991, 44% of the cases in which a juvenile was transferred to criminal court involved property offenses, and these less serious offenses are likely to result in plea bargains in the overburdened adult criminal court system, at least do not result in incarceration.
♦ A study conducted in 1991 suggests recidivism rates may be lower for juveniles sanctioned in juvenile court than for juveniles sanctioned in adult court.
♦ Research on the transfer/waiver of juveniles to adult court documents the presence of disproportionately large numbers of minority youth being transferred in comparison to non-minority youth.

The belief that the adult system contains the resources to distribute more effective, efficient, and appropriate punishment and rehabilitation for juveniles is not widely supported in actual practice. Relying on an adult system, where effectiveness in dealing with adult criminals has been widely questioned, to deal with the problems of juveniles undermines the intention behind the creation of a juvenile justice system.

The juvenile system is an integral part of a society whose future is built upon the integrity, vision, and self-reliance of its youth. The widespread transfer of juveniles, at increasingly younger ages, to the adult system represents the relinquishment of the hope of rehabilitation and the abandonment of core juvenile justice principles.

CUSTODY REQUIREMENTS

SECURE CUSTODY

These secure custody requirements outline the JJDP ACT procedures for the holding of juveniles in secure facilities.

When used to define a detention or correctional facility, the term secure includes residential facilities with construction features designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of persons in custody.

NON-SECURE CUSTODY

A non-secure environment, for the purposes of detention within a secured facility, is defined in terms of freedom of movement from the facility. The juvenile cannot be detained by hardware or construction fixtures designated to restrict the movement or activities of persons in custody. Non-secure custody means the juvenile is able to leave the facility at any time.

The following non-secure custody guidelines for juveniles held in law enforcement facilities were established to assist in distinguishing between secure detention and non-secure custody\(^{20}\).

1. The area where the juvenile is placed is an unlocked, multi-purpose location and not part of a larger secure area, such as a lobby, office, or an interview room, which is not designated, set aside, or able to be used as a secure area (a room with a lock that cannot be unlocked from the inside is considered secure--even if the lock is not used when youth are present);

2. The juvenile is not physically secured to an object that would prevent the youth from leaving at will;
3. The use of the area is limited to providing non-secure custody long enough and for the purposes of identification, processing, release, or transfer;
4. The area(s) is/are not designated or intended to be used for residential purposes, and

CLASSIFICATION OF FACILITIES

Classification will determine what type of juvenile may be held and for what period of time. The two primary descriptors to determine facility classification are the level of security and the location of the facility.

HOLDOVER FACILITIES

If the facility is staff-secure or non-secure and is not:

1. A licensed youth care facility as defined in MCA 52-2-602, or
2. located in an adult jail or lock-up, it will be classified as a non-secure holdover program. For monitoring purposes the non-secure holdover standards\(^{21}\) will apply (Reference MCA 41-5-103 (23) Holdover).

LICENSED COLLOCATED FACILITIES

If the facility is licensed by the Department of Corrections, secure and located on the same grounds with an adult jail or lock-up, it will be classified as an approved collocated facility. For monitoring purposes the standards for Licensed Secure Juvenile Detention Facilities will apply. (Reference MCA 41-5-103 (49)(a)(ii) Collocated secure detention facility)

OTHER SECURE FACILITIES

If the facility is unlicensed and has secure features, such as cuffing rails or doors that lock that cannot be unlocked from the inside without a key, it will be classified as an Adult Jail or Lockup. For monitoring purposes the Standards for Law Enforcement Departments will apply.

LICENSED JUVENILE DETENTION FACILITIES

If the facility is secure and licensed by the Department of Corrections, it will be classified as juvenile detention facility. (Reference MCA 41-5-103(15) Detention facility, (39) Short-term detention center, and (49) Youth detention facility). For monitoring purposes the standards for Licensed Juvenile Detention Facilities will apply.

YOUTH CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES

State youth correctional facilities are the Pine Hills youth boys’ correctional facility in Miles City and the Riverside youth girls’ correctional facility in Boulder and Standards

REGULATIONS FOR COLLOCATED FACILITIES

The Federal Regulations issued pursuant to the JJDP Act delineates four regulatory requirements which must be met to establish a juvenile detention facility where such a facility is located in the same complex of buildings as an adult jail or lock-up, referred to as a collocated facility.

The Intent of the Collocation Requirements

The collocation regulations reflect the commitment of OJJDP to promoting best practice principles with juveniles.

♦ The OJJDP maintains that states should not rely on the development of collocated facilities as the primary strategy for achieving and maintaining compliance with the Jail Removal requirement.

♦ The emphasis on facility, program, and staff separation support the core requirements of the JJDP Act and the principles that the needs of juveniles are fundamentally different from the needs of adults.

The four criteria for a juvenile detention facility that is collocated with an adult jail or lock-up provide for:

1. Separations between juveniles and adults such that there could be no sustained sight or sound contact between juveniles and incarcerated adults. Total separation must be achieved:
   a. in residential areas, e.g. sleeping and bathroom, through architectural design such that no contact is possible;
   b. in program areas, e.g. educational, vocational, and recreational, separation must be achieved either through architectural design or through time-phased use of areas as directed by written policies and procedures.

2. Total separation in all juvenile and adult programs within the facilities, including recreation, education, counseling, healthcare, dining, sleeping and general living activities.

3. Separate juvenile and adult staff, including management, security staff, and direct care staff, such as recreation, education, and counseling are required unless the state has a policy that requires such staff that work with both adults and juveniles be trained to work with juveniles. (NOTE: Montana is developing those policies, but until they are in place, the separate staffing requirement remains effective.)
Specialized services staff, such as cooks, bookkeepers, and medical professionals who are not normally in contact with detainees, or whose infrequent contacts occur under conditions of separation of juveniles and adults, can serve both.

IN STATES THAT HAVE ESTABLISHED STANDARDS OR LICENSING REQUIREMENTS FOR SECURE JUVENILE DETENTION FACILITIES, THE JUVENILE FACILITY MUST MEET THE STANDARDS AND BE LICENSED AS APPROPRIATE.

Each type of facility is subject to compliance with some or all of the core requirements. The following chart was developed as a reference guide to understand which core requirements apply based on the facility type.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE & TRAINING

The Montana Board of Crime Control and the Youth Justice Council recognize the challenges for reaching and maintaining compliance with the JJDP ACT. Technical assistance and training is available to agencies, counties and municipalities. Examples include, but are not limited to:

♦ New jail or lock-up blueprint review to determine whether the proposed facility and juvenile processing practices are in compliance with the core requirements of the JJDP ACT.
♦ Education and training for patrol, detention and administrative officers regarding the handling of juveniles.
♦ Training for juvenile justice professionals at conferences or regional meetings.
♦ Assistance to local communities interested in developing or reviewing detention practices and placement options.
♦ Problem solving to reach solutions consistent with the JJDP Act, the Youth Court Act and responsive to community needs and protections.
♦ Assistance in reviewing liability issues related to juvenile holding.
APPENDIX A – OJJDP VCO SUMMARY
VCO Exception
Summary

A juvenile commits a status offense such as truancy, runaway, curfew, or minor in possession of alcohol. The valid court order provision may not be used for nonoffenders.

A valid court order is given by a juvenile court judge to a juvenile:

✦ who was brought before the court and made subject to such order, and
✦ who received, before the issuance of such order, the full due process rights guaranteed to such juvenile by the Constitution of the United States.

After it issuance, the juvenile violates the valid court order.

The juvenile may be held in a juvenile detention facility or a nonsecure facility. The juvenile may not be held in an adult jail or lockup for any amount of time.

If the juvenile is held in a juvenile detention facility, a representative from an appropriate public agency must interview the juvenile in person within 24 hours (excluding weekends and holidays) of being placed into detention.

The juvenile can continue to be held in a juvenile detention facility if the juvenile has a reasonable cause hearing within 48 hours (excluding weekends and holidays) of being placed in detention. The reasonable cause hearing must include the following:

✦ A judicial determination that there is reasonable cause to believe the juvenile violated the valid court order, and
✦ A judicial determination that the juvenile is being held in the most appropriate placement pending disposition of the violation. This determination is based upon an assessment submitted by an appropriate public agency representative that reviews the immediate needs of the juvenile.

If all of the items listed above were satisfied during the reasonable cause hearing, the juvenile may be held in a juvenile detention center but should not be held any longer than necessary to make an informed disposition. The juvenile cannot be held in an adult jails or lockup for any length of time.
VCO Exception Checklist

A valid court order means a court order given by a juvenile court judge to a juvenile who was brought before the court and made subject to such order, and who received, before the issuance of such order, the full due process rights guaranteed to such juvenile by the Constitution of the United States.

If a juvenile is taken into custody for violating a valid court order issued for committing a status offense, the following conditions must be met:

_____ Was an appropriate public agency promptly notified that such juvenile is held in custody for violating such order?

_____ Was the juvenile interviewed in person, by an appropriate public agency representative, within 24 hours of the juvenile’s placement in secure detention, excluding weekends and holidays?

_____ Did the public agency representative submit an assessment to the court, prior to the 48 hour reasonable cause hearing, regarding the immediate needs of the juvenile and the most appropriate placement needs of the juvenile pending disposition of the violation?

_____ Was the reasonable cause hearing held within 48 hours of the juvenile’s placement in secure detention, excluding weekends and holidays?

_____ Was there a judicial determination that there was reasonable cause to believe the juvenile violated such order?

APPENDIX B - DECISION TREE FOR HANDLING OUT-OF-STATE RUNAWAY YOUTH
February 10, 2003

Audrey Allums
3075 N. Montana Avenue
PO Box 201408
Helena, MT 59620-1408

Dear Audrey:

There have been recurring questions about the legality of detaining runaway youth from other states. It is the desire of the three entities involved in the process to clarify the steps in the process for field agents and detention centers.

The Montana Department of Corrections, the Supreme Court Administrator’s Office and the Montana Board of Crime Control have agreed upon a “Decision Tree For Detention Of Out Of State Runaway Youth”.

The Decision Tree is attached and the agency representatives, by signing the Decision Tree document dated January 24, 2003, indicate agreement to this process. It is our hope that this will eliminate any confusion regarding the process and any concerns that funding for detention centers will be jeopardized when out of state runaways are detained.

Please make this Decision Tree available to all officers who may have a need to be involved in the custody of and detaining of juvenile runaways from outside Montana.

Sincerely,

KAREN DUNCAN
Bureau Chief
Juvenile Community Corrections Bureau

(1) The county attorney may, in the county attorney's discretion and in accordance with the procedure provided in 46-11-201, file with the district court a motion for leave to file an information in the district court if:
(a) the youth charged was 12 years of age or older at the time of the conduct alleged to be unlawful and the unlawful act would if it had been committed by an adult constitute:
   (i) sexual intercourse without consent as defined in 45-5-503;
   (ii) deliberate homicide as defined in 45-5-102;
   (iii) mitigated deliberate homicide as defined in 45-5-103;
   (iv) assault on a peace officer or judicial officer as defined in 45-5-210; or
   (v) the attempt, as defined in 45-4-103, of or accountability, as provided in 45-2-301, for either deliberate or mitigated deliberate homicide; or

   (ii) arson as defined in 45-6-103;

   (xv) attempt, as defined in 45-4-103, of or accountability, as provided in 45-2-301, for any of the acts enumerated in subsections (1)(b)(i) through (1)(b)(xiv).

(2) The county attorney shall file with the district court a petition for leave to file an information in district court if the youth was 17 years of age at the time the youth committed an offense listed under subsection (1).

(3) The district court shall grant leave to file the information if it appears from the affidavit or other evidence supplied by the county attorney that there is probable cause to believe that the youth has committed the alleged offense. Within 30 days after leave to file the information is granted, the district court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the matter must be transferred back to the youth court, unless the hearing is waived by the youth or by the youth's counsel in writing or on the record. The hearing may be continued on request of either party for good cause. The district court may not transfer the case back to the youth court unless the district court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that:
(a) a youth court proceeding and disposition will serve the interests of community protection;
(b) that the nature of the offense does not warrant prosecution in district court; and
(c) it would be in the best interests of the youth if the matter was prosecuted in youth court.

(4) The filing of an information in district court terminates the jurisdiction of the youth court over the youth with respect to the acts alleged in the information. A youth may not be prosecuted in the district court for a criminal offense originally subject to the jurisdiction of the youth court unless the case has been filed in the district court as provided in this section. A case may be transferred to district court after prosecution as provided in 41-5-208 or 41-5-1605.

(5) An offense not enumerated in subsection (1) that arises during the commission of a crime enumerated in subsection (1) may be:
(a) tried in youth court;
(b) transferred to district court with an offense enumerated in subsection (1) upon motion of the county attorney and order of the district court. The district court shall hold a hearing before deciding the motion.

(6) If a youth is found guilty in district court of an offense enumerated in subsection (1), the court shall sentence the youth pursuant to 41-5-2503 and Titles 45 and 46. A youth who is sentenced to the department or a state prison must be evaluated and placed by the department in an appropriate juvenile or adult correctional facility. The department shall confine the youth in an institution that it considers proper, including a state youth correctional facility under the procedures of 52-5-111. However, a youth under 16 years of age may not be confined in a state prison facility. During the period of confinement, school-aged youth with disabilities must be provided an education consistent with the requirements of the federal Individuals With Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. 1400, et seq.

(7) If a youth's case is filed in the district court and remains in the district court after the transfer hearing, the youth may be detained in a jail or other adult detention facility pending final disposition of the youth's case if the youth is kept in an area that provides physical separation from adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.

juvenile disposition -- nonextended jurisdiction and nontransferred cases. (1) After adjudication by the court of a case that was not transferred to district court under 41-5-206 and that was not prosecuted as an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution under part 16 of this chapter, the court may, on the youth's motion or the motion of the county attorney, transfer jurisdiction to the district court and order the transfer of supervisory responsibility from juvenile probation services to adult probation services. A transfer under this section may be made to ensure continued compliance with the court's disposition under 41-5-1512 or 41-5-1513 and may be made at any time after a youth reaches 18 years of age but before the youth reaches 21 years of age.
(2) Before transfer, the court shall hold a hearing on whether the transfer should be made. 41-5-350. Permitted acts -- detention of youth in law enforcement facilities -- criteria. (1) Nothing in this chapter precludes the detention of youth in a police station or other law enforcement facility that is attached to or part of a jail if:
   (a) the area where the youth is held is an unlocked, multipurpose area, such as a lobby, office, interrogation room, or other area that is not designated or used as a secure detention area or that is not part of a secure detention area, or, if part of such an area, that is used only for the purpose of processing, such as a booking room;
   (b) the youth is not secured to a cuffing rail or other stationary object during the period of detention;
   (c) use of the area is limited to ensuring custody of the youth for the purpose of identification, processing, or transfer of the youth to an appropriate detention or shelter care facility;
   (d) the area is not designed or intended to be used for residential purposes; and
   (e) the youth is under continuous visual supervision by a law enforcement officer or by facility staff during the period of time that the youth is held in detention.
(2) For purposes of this section, "secure detention" means the detention of youth or confinement of adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses in a physically restricting setting, including but not limited to a locked room or set of rooms or a cell designed to prevent a youth or adult from departing at will.
41-5-351 through 41-5-354 reserved.

41-5-355. Excessive juvenile population -- confinement of juveniles in alternate placements. (1) The department shall determine the capacity for state youth correctional facilities. The department shall notify all district courts, sheriffs, and youth courts of the capacity for each state youth correctional facility by sending a report to each annually.

(2) If the population of a state youth correctional facility exceeds the capacity established by the department, the director of the department may declare that the capacity has been exceeded and temporarily stop admissions to the facility. The director shall notify each district court, sheriff, and youth court that delinquent or criminally convicted youth will not be accepted by the department for admission into the facility until the population is reduced to less than the capacity determined by the department in subsection (1).

(3) If the director of the department declares that the capacity has been exceeded, the department shall place delinquent youth committed to a state youth correctional facility or criminally convicted youth in alternate placements based on the needs of the delinquent youth or criminally convicted youth. If a youth is denied placement in a state youth correctional facility under this section, the department shall inform and seek approval of the district court of the intended alternative placement prior to placing the youth.

(4) The department may enter into contracts with the federal government, other states, local governments, public or private corporations, and other entities that have suitable facilities for confining delinquent youth or criminally convicted youth committed to the department, either because a state youth correctional facility has exceeded its capacity or because the department has no youth correctional facility that is adequate for certain delinquent youth or criminally convicted youth.

(n) any other condition ordered by the court to accomplish the goals of the consent adjustment, including but not limited to mediation or youth assessment. Before ordering youth assessment, the court shall provide the family an estimate of the cost of youth assessment, and the court shall take into consideration the financial resources of the family before ordering parental or guardian contribution for the costs of youth assessment.

(2) If the youth violates a parole agreement as provided for in 52-5-126, the youth must be returned to the court for further disposition. A youth may not be placed in a state youth correctional facility under consent adjustment.

(3) If the youth is placed in substitute care, an assessment placement, or detention requiring payment by any state department or local government agency, the court shall examine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution covering all or part of the costs for the adjudication, disposition, supervision, care, placement, and treatment of the youth, including the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health care.

(1) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention. The application must be supported by evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.

(2) A petition charging a youth who is held in detention or a youth assessment center must be filed within 7 working days from the date the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good cause is shown to further detain the youth.

(3) If a petition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed by the probation officer or assessment officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer or assessment officer, and make the final decision as to whether a petition is filed.

the youth and, if the parents, guardian, or spouse do not reside or cannot be found within the state or if there is none, the adult relative residing nearest to the court;
(e) whether the youth is in detention, a youth assessment center, or shelter care and, if so, the place of detention, assessment, or shelter care and the time that the youth was detained or sheltered;
(f) if any of the matters required to be set forth by this section are not known, a statement of those matters and the fact that they are not known; and
(g) a list of witnesses to be used in proving the commission of the offense or offenses charged in the petition, together with their residence addresses. The names and addresses of any witnesses discovered after the filing of the petition must be furnished to the youth upon request.

committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult and that is transferable under 41-5-206 or in which a youth 12 years of age or older allegedly used a firearm, the county attorney shall indicate in the petition whether the county attorney designates the proceeding an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution. When the county attorney files a delinquency petition alleging that a youth committed any other offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, the county attorney may request

(a) the youth;
(b) the youth's parent or parents having actual custody of the youth or the youth's guardian or custodian, as the case may be; and

(a) require the parties to whom it is directed to appear personally before the court at the time fixed by the summons to answer the allegations of the petition;
(b) advise the parties of their right to counsel under the Montana Youth Court Act; and
(c) have attached to it a copy of the petition.
(3) The court may endorse upon the summons an order directing the person or persons having the physical custody or control of the youth to bring the youth to the hearing.

(4) If it appears to the court that the youth needs to be placed in detention or shelter care, the judge may endorse on the summons an order directing the officer serving the summons to at once take the youth into custody and to take the youth to the place of detention or shelter care designated by the court, subject to the rights of the youth and parent or person having legal custody of the youth as set forth in the provisions of the Montana Youth Court Act relating to detention and shelter care criteria and postdetention proceedings.

(2) Service of summons on all other persons designated in 41-5-1403(1) shall be made in accordance with Rule 4D of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, except that in all cases service shall be completed at least 5 days before the time stated for appearance.

(3) If a party referred to in subsection (2) herein is not personally served before a hearing and has not secluded himself with an attempt to delay or disrupt any proceeding, such party may appear within a reasonable time subsequent to the hearing and, on motion to the court, request a rehearing. The motion may be granted at the discretion of the judge if a rehearing would be in the best interest of the youth.

(4) The court may authorize payment from county funds of costs of service and necessary travel expenses incurred by persons summoned or otherwise required to appear at the hearing.

(5) An actual abandonment of a youth by his parent or parents shall constitute a waiver of summons and notice requirements by the parent or parents. A return endorsed upon the summons showing inability to serve summons constitutes prima facie evidence of actual abandonment.

(6) The youth court may, in the interests of justice, shorten the notice requirements contained herein, and such notice of shortened time shall be endorsed on the summons.
(7) A party, other than the youth, may waive service of summons on himself by written stipulation or by voluntary appearance at the hearing. If the youth is present at the hearing, his counsel may waive service of summons in his behalf.

(3) A youth's parents or guardians are obligated to assist and support the youth court in implementing the court's orders concerning a youth under youth court jurisdiction, and the parents or guardians are subject to the court's contempt powers if they fail to do so. The youth court personnel shall assist the parents to the extent

If counsel is not retained or if it appears that counsel will not be retained, counsel must be appointed for the youth if the parents or guardian and the youth are unable to provide counsel unless the right to appointed counsel is waived by the youth and the parents or guardian. Neither the youth nor the youth's parents or guardian may waive counsel after a petition has been filed if commitment to the department for a period of more than 6 months may result from adjudication.

41-5-1415. Admissibility of confession or illegally seized evidence. In a proceeding alleging a youth to be a delinquent youth:

(1) an extrajudicial statement that would be constitutionally inadmissible in a criminal matter may not be received in evidence;

(2) evidence illegally seized or obtained may not be received in evidence to establish the allegations of a petition against a youth; and
(3) an extrajudicial admission or confession made by the youth out of court is insufficient to support a finding that the youth committed the acts alleged in the petition unless it is corroborated by other evidence.

(1) The attorney general shall ensure that the services and assistance that must be provided under Title 46, chapter 24, to a victim or witness of a crime are also provided to the victim or witness of a juvenile felony offense.

(2) In a proceeding filed under this part, the county attorney or a designee shall consult with the victim of a juvenile felony offense regarding the disposition of the case, including:
   (a) a dismissal of the petition filed under 41-5-1402;
   (b) a reduction of the charge to misdemeanor;

The consultation required by this subsection (2)(c) must take place prior to the youth's release, whether or not the county attorney or designee has received information from the victim under subsection (3)(a), unless the county attorney or designee is unable to contact the victim after making a good faith effort to contact the victim.
   (d) the disposition of the youth.

(3) (a) Whenever possible, a person described in subsection (3)(b) who provides the appropriate agency with a current address and telephone number must receive prompt advance notification of youth court case proceedings, including:

   (c) The county attorney or a designee who provides the consultation regarding the disposition of a case required in subsection (2) shall give the victim the opportunity to provide the victim's current telephone number and address and shall provide the victim with the name and address of the agency or agencies responsible for operation of youth detention, correctional, or shelter care facilities that are responsible for the custody of the youth.
(d) The appropriate official or agency shall provide the notification required by this subsection (3) in the same manner as required for offenses committed by adults.

(4) For purposes of this section, "juvenile felony offense" means an offense committed by a juvenile that, if committed by an adult, would constitute a felony offense. The term includes any offense for which a juvenile may be declared a serious juvenile offender, as defined in 41-5-103.

41-5-1422. Modification of court orders -- notice to department -- hearing.

(1) An order of the court may be modified at any time.

(2) In the case of a youth committed to the department, an order pertaining to the youth may be modified only upon notice to the department and a subsequent hearing.

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 550, L. 1997.

41-5-1423. Appeals. (1) Any party other than the state may appeal from a judgment of the court to the supreme court in the manner provided by law. The appeal shall be heard by the supreme court upon the files, records, and transcript of the evidence of the juvenile court.

(2) The appeal to the supreme court does not stay the judgment appealed from, but the supreme court may order a stay upon application and hearing consistent with the provisions of this chapter if suitable provision is made for the care and custody of the youth. If the order appealed from grants the legal custody of the youth to or withholds it from one or more of the parties to the appeal, the appeal shall be heard at the earliest practicable time.

History: En. 10-1225 by Sec. 25, Ch. 329, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 10-1225; Sec. 41-5-532, MCA 1995; redes. 41-5-1423 by Sec. 47, Ch. 286, L. 1997.

41-5-1431. Probation revocation proceeding -- petition -- hearing -- disposition. (1) A youth on probation incident to an adjudication that the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention and that the youth has violated a term of probation may be proceeded against in a probation revocation proceeding. A proceeding to revoke probation must be done by filing in the original proceeding a petition styled "petition to revoke probation".

(2) Petitions to revoke probation must be screened, reviewed, and prepared in the same manner and must contain the same information as petitions alleging delinquency or need of intervention. Procedures of the Montana Youth Court Act regarding taking into custody and detention apply. The petition must state the terms of probation alleged to have been violated and the factual basis for the allegations.

(3) The standard of proof in probation revocation proceedings is the same standard used in probation revocation of an adult, and the hearing must be before the youth court without a jury. In all other respects, proceedings to revoke probation are governed by the procedures, rights, and duties applicable to proceedings on petitions alleging that the youth is delinquent or a youth in need of intervention. If a youth is found to have violated a term of probation, the youth court may make any judgment of disposition that could have been made in the original case.

41-5-1432. Enforcement of restitution orders. If the court orders payment of restitution and the youth fails to pay the restitution in accordance with the payment schedule or structure established by the court or probation officer, the youth's probation officer may, on the officer's own motion or at the request of the victim, file a petition for violation of probation or ask the court to hold a hearing to determine whether the conditions of probation should be changed. The probation officer shall ask for a hearing if the restitution has not been paid prior to 60 days before the term of probation expires. The court shall schedule and hold the hearing before the youth's term of probation expires.

Formal Proceeding -- Hearing -- Disposition

Part Cross-References
Victims and witnesses of juvenile felony offenses -- consultation -- notification of proceedings, 41-5-1416.
41-5-1501. Consent decree with petition. (1) (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), after the filing of a petition under 41-5-1402 and before the entry of a judgment, the court may, on motion of counsel for the youth or on the court's own motion, suspend the proceedings and continue the youth under supervision under terms and conditions negotiated with probation services and agreed to by all necessary parties. The court's order continuing the youth under supervision under this section is known as a "consent decree". Except as provided in subsection (1)(b), the procedures used and dispositions permitted under this section must conform to the procedures and dispositions specified in 41-5-1302 through 41-5-1304 relating to consent adjustments without petition and the responsibility of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution for the costs of placement in substitute care.

(b) A youth may be placed in detention for up to 10 days on a space-available basis at the county's expense, which is not reimbursable under part 19 of this chapter.

(2) A consent decree under this section may not be used by the court unless the youth admits guilt for a charge of an offense set forth in the petition and accepts responsibility for the youth's actions.

(3) If the youth or the youth's counsel objects to a consent decree, the court shall proceed to findings, adjudication, and disposition of the case.

(4) If, either prior to discharge by probation services or expiration of the consent decree, a new petition alleging that the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention is filed against the youth or if the youth fails to fulfill the expressed terms and conditions of the consent decree, the petition under which the youth was continued under supervision may be reinstated in the discretion of the county attorney in consultation with probation services. In the event of reinstatement, the proceeding on the petition must be continued to conclusion as if the consent decree had never been entered.

(5) A youth who is discharged by probation services or who completes a period under supervision without reinstatement of the original petition may not again be proceeded against in any court for the same offense alleged in the petition, and the original petition must be dismissed with prejudice. This subsection does not preclude a civil suit against the youth for damages arising from the youth's conduct.

(6) If the terms of the consent decree extend for a period in excess of 6 months, the probation officer shall at the end of each 6-month period submit a report that must be reviewed by the court.

(7) A consent decree with petition under this section may not be used to dispose of a youth's alleged second or subsequent offense if that offense would be a felony if committed by an adult or third or subsequent offense if that offense would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult unless it is recommended by the county attorney and accepted by the youth court judge.

41-5-1502. Adjudicatory hearing. (1) Prior to any adjudicatory hearing, the court shall determine whether the youth admits or denies the offenses alleged in the petition. If the youth denies all offenses alleged in the petition, the youth or the youth's parent, guardian, or attorney may demand a jury trial on the contested offenses. In the absence of a demand, a jury trial is waived. If the youth denies some offenses and admits others, the contested offenses may be dismissed in the discretion of the youth court judge. The adjudicatory hearing must be set immediately and accorded a preferential priority.

(2) An adjudicatory hearing must be held to determine whether the contested offenses are supported by proof beyond a reasonable doubt in cases involving a youth alleged to be delinquent or in need of intervention. If the hearing is before a jury, the jury's function is to determine whether the youth committed the contested offenses. If the hearing is before the youth court judge without a jury, the judge shall make and record findings on all issues. If the allegations of the petitions are not established at the hearing, the youth court shall dismiss the petition and discharge the youth from custody.

(3) Prior to an adjudicatory hearing before a jury, the court shall conduct an omnibus hearing in accordance with 46-13-110.

(4) The jury trial must be conducted in accordance with Title 46, chapter 16.

(5) An adjudicatory hearing must be recorded verbatim by whatever means the court considers appropriate.

(6) The youth charged in a petition must be present at the hearing and, if brought from detention to the hearing, may not appear clothed in institutional clothing.

(7) In a hearing on a petition under this section, the general public may not be excluded, except that in the court's discretion, the general public may be excluded if the petition alleges that the youth is in need of intervention.

(8) If, on the basis of a valid admission by a youth of the allegations of the petition or after the hearing required by this section, a youth is found to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention, the court shall schedule a dispositional hearing under this chapter.

41-5-1503. Medical or psychological evaluation of youth -- urinalysis. (1) The youth court may order a youth to receive a medical or psychological evaluation at any time prior to final disposition if the youth waives the youth's constitutional rights in the manner provided for in 41-5-331. The county determined by the court as the residence of the youth is responsible for the cost of the evaluation, except as provided in subsection (2). A county may contract with the department or other public or private agencies to obtain evaluation services ordered by the court.

(2) The youth court shall determine the financial ability of the youth’s parents or guardians to pay the cost of an evaluation ordered by the court under subsection (1). If they are financially able, the court shall order the youth’s parents or guardians to pay all or part of the cost of the evaluation.

(3) Subject to 41-5-1512(1)(o)(i), the youth court may not order an evaluation or placement of a youth at a state youth correctional facility unless the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an offense that is listed under 41-5-206.

(4) An evaluation of a youth may not be performed at the Montana state hospital unless the youth is transferred to the district court under 41-5-208 or 41-5-1605 or the jurisdiction of the youth court is terminated following the filing of an information in district court pursuant to 41-5-206.

(5) In a proceeding alleging a youth to be a delinquent youth, upon a finding of an offense related to use of alcohol or illegal drugs, the court may order the youth to undergo urinalysis for the purpose of determining whether the youth is using alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs.

41-5-1504. Finding of suffering from mental disorder and meeting other criteria -- rights -- limitation on placement. (1) A youth who is found to be suffering from a mental disorder, as defined in 53-21-102, and who meets the criteria in 53-21-126(1) is entitled to all rights provided by 53-21-114 through 53-21-119.

(2) A youth who, prior to placement or sentencing, is found to be suffering from a mental disorder, as defined in 53-21-102, and who meets the criteria in 53-21-126(1) may not be committed or sentenced to a state youth correctional facility.

(3) A youth who is found to be suffering from a mental disorder, as defined in 53-21-102, and who meets the criteria in 53-21-126(1) after placement in or sentencing to a state youth correctional facility must be moved to a more appropriate placement in response to the youth’s mental health needs and consistent with the disposition alternatives available in 53-21-127.

History: En. Secs. 36, 78(1)(c), Ch. 550, L. 1997.

41-5-1505 through 41-5-1510 reserved.

41-5-1511. Dispositional hearing -- contributions by parents or guardians for expenses. (1) As soon as practicable after a youth is found to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention, the court shall conduct a dispositional hearing. The dispositional hearing may involve a determination of the financial ability of the youth’s parents or guardians to pay a contribution for the cost of the adjudication, disposition, supervision, care, commitment, and treatment of the youth as required in 41-5-1525, including the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health care.

(2) Before conducting the dispositional hearing, the court shall direct that a youth assessment or predisposition report be made in writing by a probation officer or an assessment officer concerning the youth, the youth's family, the youth's environment, and other matters relevant to the need for care or rehabilitation or disposition of the case, including a statement by the victim or the victim's family. The youth court may have the youth examined, and the results of the examination must be made available to the court as part of the youth assessment or predisposition report. The court may order the examination of a parent or guardian whose ability to care for or supervise a youth is at issue before the court. The results of the examination must be included in the youth assessment or predisposition report. The youth or the youth's parents, guardian, or counsel has the right to subpoena all persons who have prepared any portion of the youth assessment or predisposition report and has the right to cross-examine the parties at the dispositional hearing.

(3) Defense counsel must be furnished with a copy of the youth assessment or predisposition report and psychological report prior to the dispositional hearing.

(4) The dispositional hearing must be conducted in the manner set forth in 41-5-1502(5) through (7). The court shall hear all evidence relevant to a proper disposition of the case best serving the interests of the youth, the victim, and the public. The evidence must include but is not limited to the youth assessment and predisposition report provided for in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) If the court finds that it is in the best interest of the youth, the youth, the youth's parents or guardian, or the public may be temporarily excluded from the hearing during the taking of evidence on the issues of need for treatment and rehabilitation.

41-5-1512. Disposition of youth in need of intervention or youth who violate consent adjustments. (1) If a youth is found to be a youth in need of intervention or to have violated a consent adjustment, the youth court may enter its judgment making one or more of the following dispositions:

(a) place the youth on probation. The youth court shall retain jurisdiction in a disposition under this subsection.

(b) place the youth in a residence that ensures that the youth is accountable, that provides for rehabilitation, and that protects the public. Before placement, the sentencing judge shall seek and consider placement recommendations from the youth placement committee.
(c) commit the youth to the department in jurisdictions that do not participate in the juvenile delinquency intervention program or to the youth court in jurisdictions that participate in the juvenile delinquency intervention program for the purposes of funding a private, out-of-home, residential placement subject to the conditions in 41-5-1522. In an order committing a youth to the department or to the youth court, the court shall determine whether continuation in the youth's own home would be contrary to the welfare of the youth and whether reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the youth from the youth's home.

(d) order restitution for damages that result from the offense for which the youth is disposed by the youth or by the person that contributed to the delinquency of the youth;

(e) require the performance of community service;

(f) require the youth, the youth's parents or guardians, or the persons having legal custody of the youth to receive counseling services;

(g) require the medical and psychological evaluation of the youth, the youth's parents or guardians, or the persons having legal custody of the youth;

(h) require the parents, guardians, or other persons having legal custody of the youth to furnish services the court may designate;

(i) order further care, treatment, evaluation, or relief that the court considers beneficial to the youth and the community;

(j) subject to the provisions of 41-5-1504, commit the youth to a mental health facility if, based upon the testimony of a professional person as defined in 53-21-102, the court finds that the youth is found to be suffering from a mental disorder, as defined in 53-21-102, and meets the criteria in 53-21-126(1);

(k) place the youth under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10;

(l) order confiscation of the youth's driver's license, if the youth has one, by the probation officer for a specified period of time, not to exceed 90 days. The probation officer shall notify the department of justice of the confiscation and its duration. The department of justice may not enter the confiscation on the youth's driving record. The probation officer shall notify the department of justice when the confiscated driver's license has been returned to the youth. A youth's driver's license may be confiscated under this subsection more than once. The probation officer may, in the probation officer's discretion and with the concurrence of a parent or guardian, return a youth's confiscated driver's license before the termination of the time period for which it had been confiscated. The confiscation may not be used by an insurer as a factor in determining the premium or part of a premium to be paid for motor vehicle insurance covering the youth or a vehicle or vehicles driven by the youth, nor may it be used as grounds for denying coverage for an accident or other occurrence under an existing policy.

(m) order the youth to pay a contribution covering all or a part of the costs for the adjudication, disposition, attorney fees for the costs of prosecuting or defending the youth, costs of detention, supervision, care, custody, and treatment of the youth, including the costs of counseling;

(n) order the youth to pay a contribution covering all or a part of the costs of a victim's counseling;

(o) defer imposition of sentence for up to 45 days for a placement evaluation at a suitable program or facility with the following conditions:

(i) The court may not order placement for evaluation at a youth correctional facility of a youth who has committed an offense that would not be a criminal offense if committed by an adult or a youth who has violated a consent adjustment.

(ii) The placement for evaluation must be on a space-available basis at the county's expense, which is not reimbursable under part 19 of this chapter.

(iii) The court may require the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution covering all or a part of the costs of the evaluation if the court determines after an examination of financial ability that the parents or guardians are able to pay the contribution. Any remaining unpaid costs of evaluation are the financial responsibility of the judicial district of the court that ordered the evaluation.

(p) order placement of a youth in a youth assessment center for up to 10 days;

(q) order the youth to participate in mediation that is appropriate for the offense committed.

(2) The court may not order a local government entity to pay for care, treatment, intervention, or placement. A court may order a local government entity to pay for evaluation and in-state transportation of a youth.

(3) The court may not order a state government entity to pay for care, treatment, intervention, placement, or evaluation that results in a deficit in the account established for that district under 41-5-130 without approval from the cost containment review panel.

41-5-1513. Disposition -- delinquent youth -- restrictions. (1) If a youth is found to be a delinquent youth, the youth court may enter its judgment making one or more of the following dispositions:

(a) any one or more of the dispositions provided in 41-5-1512;
(b) subject to 41-5-1504, 41-5-1512(1)(o)(i), and 41-5-1522, commit the youth to the department for placement in a state youth correctional facility and recommend to the department that the youth not be released until the youth reaches 18 years of age. The provisions of 41-5-355 relating to alternative placements apply to placements under this subsection (1)(b). The court may not place a youth adjudicated to be a delinquent youth in a state youth correctional facility for an act that would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult unless:

(i) the youth committed four or more misdemeanors in the prior 12 months;
(ii) a psychiatrist or a psychologist licensed by the state or a licensed clinical professional counselor or a licensed clinical social worker has evaluated the youth and recommends placement in a state youth correctional facility; and
(iii) the court finds that the youth will present a danger to the public if the youth is not placed in a state youth correctional facility.

(c) require a youth found to be a delinquent youth, as the result of the commission of an offense that would be a sexual offense or violent offense, as defined in 46-23-502, if committed by an adult, to register as a sexual or violent offender pursuant to Title 46, chapter 23, part 5. The youth court shall retain jurisdiction in a disposition under this subsection.

(d) in the case of a delinquent youth who is determined by the court to be a serious juvenile offender, the judge may specify that the youth be placed in a state youth correctional facility, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), if the judge finds that the placement is necessary for the protection of the public. The court may order the department to notify the court within 5 working days before the proposed release of a youth from a youth correctional facility. Once a youth is committed to the department for placement in a state youth correctional facility, the department is responsible for determining an appropriate date of release or an alternative placement.

(e) impose a fine as authorized by law if the violation alleged would constitute a criminal offense if committed by an adult.

(2) If a youth has been adjudicated for a sex offense, the youth court may require completion of sex offender treatment before a youth is discharged.

(3) The court may not order a local government entity to pay for care, treatment, intervention, or placement. A court may order a local government entity to pay for evaluation and in-state transportation of a youth.

(4) The court may not order a state government entity to pay for care, treatment, intervention, placement, or evaluation that results in a deficit in the account established for that district under 41-5-130 without approval from the cost containment review panel.

(a) the age of the youth;

41-5-1522. Commitment to department -- restrictions on placement. When a youth is committed to the department, the department shall determine the appropriate placement and rehabilitation program for the youth after considering the recommendations made under 41-5-123 by the youth placement committee. Placement is subject to the following limitations:
(1) A youth may not be held in a state youth correctional facility for a period of time in excess of the maximum period of imprisonment that could be imposed on an adult convicted of the offense or offenses that brought the youth under the jurisdiction of the youth court. This section does not limit the power of the department to enter into a parole agreement with the youth pursuant to 52-5-126.
(2) A youth may not be placed in or transferred to a state adult correctional facility or other facility used for the execution of sentences of adults convicted of crimes.
(3) The department may not place a youth in need of intervention, a youth adjudicated delinquent for commission of an act that would not be an offense if committed by an adult, or a youth who violates a consent adjustment in a state youth correctional facility.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 550, L. 1997.

41-5-1523. Commitment to department -- supervision. (1) A youth placed in a state youth correctional facility or other facility or program operated by the department or who signs a parole agreement under 52-5-126 must be supervised by the department.

(2) A youth who is placed in any private, out-of-home, residential placement by the youth court or the youth court's juvenile probation officer must be supervised by the probation officer of the youth court having jurisdiction over the youth under 41-5-205, whether or not the youth is committed to the department for purposes of funding a private, out-of-home, residential placement. Supervision by the youth probation officer includes but is not limited to:

(a) submitting information and documentation necessary for the person, committee, or team that is making the placement recommendation to determine an appropriate placement for the youth;

(b) securing approval for payment of special education costs from the youth's school district of residence or the office of public instruction, as required in Title 20, chapter 7, part 4;

(c) submitting an application to a facility in which the youth may be placed; and

(d) case management of the youth while in a private, out-of-home, residential placement and upon release until discharged by the department.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 550, L. 1997.

41-5-1524. Commitment to department -- transfer of records. Whenever the court commits a youth to the department, it shall transmit with the dispositional judgment copies of medical reports, social history material, youth assessment material, education records, and any other clinical, predisposition, or other reports and information pertinent to the care and treatment of the youth.

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 550, L. 1997.

41-5-1525. Contribution for costs -- order for contribution -- exceptions -- collection. (1) If a youth is placed in substitute care, a youth assessment center, or detention requiring payment by any state or local government agency or committed to the department, the court shall examine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution covering all or part of the costs for the adjudication, disposition, attorney fees for the costs of prosecuting or defending the youth, costs of detention, supervision, care, custody, and treatment of the youth, including the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health care.

(2) If the court determines that a youth’s parents or guardians are financially able to pay a contribution for adjudication, disposition, attorney fees for the costs of prosecuting or defending the youth, costs of detention, or supervision as provided in subsection (1), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay a specified amount. The order must state to which state or local government agency all or a part of the contribution is due and in what order the payments must be made.

(3) If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a contribution as provided in subsection (1), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay an amount attributable to care, custody, and treatment based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health and human services pursuant to 40-5-209.

(4) (a) Except as provided in subsection (4)(b), contributions ordered under subsection (3) and each modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both, under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section is nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of the contribution without need for an amendment of the support order or for any further action by the court.

(b) A court-ordered exception from contributions under this section must be in writing and must be included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withholding requirement may be granted if the court finds that there is:

(i) good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or

(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to pay contributions.

(c) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be based upon:

(i) a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of immediate income withholding is not in the best interests of the youth; and

(ii) proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification of contributions ordered under this section.

(d) An alternative arrangement must:

(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;

(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to make contributions; and

(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.

(5) Upon a showing of a change in the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay, the court may modify its order for the payment of contributions required under subsection (3).
(6) (a) If the court orders the payment of contributions under this section, the department shall apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement services pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution order under this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided for in Title 40, chapter 5, parts 2 and 4.

41-5-1602. Extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution -- designation. (1) A youth court case involving a youth alleged to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, except an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment or when a sentence of 100 years could be imposed, is an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution if:

(a) the youth was at least 14 years of age at the time of the alleged offense, the county attorney requests that the case be designated an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution, a hearing is held under 41-5-1603, and the court designates the case as an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution;

(b) the county attorney designates in the delinquency petition that the proceeding is an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution and the youth is alleged to have committed:

(i) an offense that is listed under 41-5-206, except an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment or when a sentence of 100 years could be imposed; or

(ii) any offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, except an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment or when a sentence of 100 years could be imposed, in which the youth allegedly used a firearm, if the youth was at least 12 years of age at the time of the alleged offense; or
(c) after a hearing upon a motion for transfer of the matter of prosecution to the district court under 41-5-206, the court designates the case as an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution.

(2) The hearing must be held within 30 days of the filing of the request unless good cause is shown by the county attorney or the youth that the hearing should be held later, in which case the hearing must be held within 90 days of the request.

(3) If the county attorney shows by clear and convincing evidence that designating the case as an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution serves public safety, the court may, within 15 days after the hearing, designate the case as an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution. In determining whether public safety is served, the court shall consider the factors enumerated in 41-5-1606.

If a youth in an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution admits to or is adjudicated to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, except an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment or when a sentence of 100 years could be imposed, the court shall, subject to subsection (1)(b), impose a single judgment consisting of:

(i) one or more juvenile dispositions under 41-5-1512 or 41-5-1513; and

(ii) any sentence allowed by the statute that establishes the penalty for the offense of which the youth is convicted and that would be permissible if the offender were an adult. The execution of the sentence imposed under this subsection must be stayed on the condition that the youth not violate the provisions of the disposition order and not commit a new offense.

(b) The combined period of time of a juvenile disposition under subsection (1)(a)(i) plus an adult sentence under subsection (1)(a)(ii) may not exceed the maximum period of imprisonment that could be imposed on an adult convicted of the offense or offenses that brought the youth under the jurisdiction of the youth court. This subsection does not limit the power of the department to enter into a parole agreement with the youth pursuant to 52-5-126.
(2) If a youth prosecuted as an extended jurisdiction juvenile after designation by the county attorney in the delinquency petition under 41-5-1602(1)(b) admits to or is adjudicated to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult that is not an offense described in 41-5-1602(1)(b), except an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment or when a sentence of 100 years could be imposed, the court shall adjudicate the youth delinquent and order a disposition under 41-5-1513.

(3) If a youth in an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution admits to or is adjudicated to have committed an offense that would not be a felony if committed by an adult, the court shall impose a disposition as provided under subsection (1)(a).

41-5-1605. Revocation of stay -- disposition. (1) If a court has imposed on a youth a sentence stayed under 41-5-1604(1)(a)(ii) and the youth violates the conditions of the stay or is alleged to have committed a new offense, the court may, without notice, direct that the youth be taken into immediate custody. The court shall notify the youth, the youth's counsel, and the youth's parents, guardian, or custodian in writing of the reasons alleged to exist for revocation of the stay of execution of the sentence.

(2) (a) The court shall hold a revocation hearing at which the youth is entitled to receive:

(i) written notice of the alleged violation;
(ii) evidence of the alleged violation;
(iii) an opportunity to be heard in person and to present witnesses and evidence;
(iv) the right to cross-examine witnesses, unless the court finds good cause for not allowing confrontation; and
(v) the right to counsel.

(b) After the revocation hearing, if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence presented that the conditions of the stay have been violated or that the youth has committed a new offense, the court shall provide the youth with a written statement of the evidence relied on and reasons for revocation and shall:

(i) continue the stay and place the youth on probation;
(ii) impose one or more dispositions under 41-5-1512 or 41-5-1513 if the youth is under 18 years of age; or

(3) Upon revocation and disposition under subsection (2)(b)(iii), the youth court shall transfer the case to the district court. Upon transfer, the offender's extended jurisdiction juvenile status is terminated and youth court jurisdiction is terminated. Ongoing supervision of the offender is with the department, rather than the youth court's juvenile probation services.
41-5-1606. Public safety. (1) In determining whether the public safety is served by designating a case an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution, the court shall consider the following factors:
   (a) the seriousness of the alleged offense in terms of community protection, including the existence of any aggravating factors, the use of a firearm, and the impact on the victim;
   (b) the culpability of the youth in committing the alleged offense, including the level of the youth's participation in planning and carrying out the offense and the existence of mitigating factors;
   (c) the youth's prior record of delinquency;
   (d) the youth's treatment history, including the youth's past willingness to participate meaningfully in available treatment;
   (e) the adequacy of the dispositions available in the juvenile justice system; and
   (f) the dispositional options available for the youth.

(2) In considering the factors listed in subsection (1), the court shall give greater weight to the seriousness of the alleged offense and the youth's prior record of delinquency than to the other listed factors.
